

General Manager (Station Manager) – Linden, CA

The General Manager (Station Manager) is the site leader responsible for Production Management and Planning, Personnel Management, Sales Development and Support, Safety and Compliance, and Operations Administration. Candidates must be willing to reside within commuting distance to the Station (Linden, CA).

Key Responsibilities include:

- Recruit, hire and supervise station associates – production/greenhouse labor, sales team and office support.
- Supervise all facets of the plant growing process.
- Manage all aspects of facility maintenance such as preventative maintenance, cleaning and landscaping.
- Maintain adequate inventory of supplies.
- Monitor and control facility expenses.
- Submit all reports and log all transfers by deadlines.
- Comply to all laws, rules, regulations, and requirements and monitor employees for compliance.
- Complete all aspects of product management to include completing growing schedules, recording product availability, and entering supply orders.
- Perform year ending inventory procedures.

QUALIFICATIONS:

Education

4-year degree in Business or Horticulture preferred, but not mandatory

Experience

4+ Years of Business Experience – ideally focused on one or more of the following:
Sales, General Management, or Greenhouse Operations

Knowledge, Skills & Abilities

- Knowledge of rules, regulations, and guidelines of various federal or state Department of Agricultures.
- Ability to make decisions recognizing established precedents and practices and to use resourcefulness and tact in solving new problems.
- Ability to exercise judgment and discretion in applying and interpreting rules, regulations, policies, and procedures.
- Ability to establish and maintain effective working relationships.
- Ability to take and follow directions and ability to work with little to no supervision.
- Competencies including bias for action, strong interpersonal skills, strong communication skills, an entrepreneurial spirit, creative problem solving, strong organizational skills and financial acumen.